

Amiran Dzabunidze – Chairperson

Judge – Tbilisi Court of Appeals;

Elected by the Conference of Judges of Georgia on July 14, 2017;

Term ends July 11, 2019;

Born 23 January 1975 in Vilnius.

Graduated from the Faculty of Law and Business of the Tbilisi University of Business and Social – Economic management majoring in law and management, 1997;

Worked as a lawyer at the Small Business Development Fund of the Georgian Ministry of Economy, 1994 – 1999;

Worked as a hearings secretary at the Tbilisi Regional Court, 2001 – 2002;

Worked as an attorney at the law firm “Mtatsminda”, 2003 – 2006;

Worked as a lawyer at the Georgian Branch “Finca Georgia “ of the Foundation “Finca International”, 2006 – 2007;

Worked as a chief of office at Mtskheta District Court, 2007- 2009;

Was a justice student at the High School of Justice, 2009 – 2011;

Worked as a judge of Mtskheta District Court, 2011;

Since December 2015, he has been a judge of Tbilisi Court of Appeals;

He is married.